Dear Don:

I want to congratulate you for that splendid and most significant find you made last week. The results of your efforts have been reported to the highest levels of our Government and the matter is the subject of much current interest and further analysis within the intelligence community.

Your achievement in this particular instance highlights once again the importance of the job we are doing. Hard work, diligence and professionalism do pay off.

Keep up the good work.

Sincerely,

[redacted] 25X1

Arthur C. Lundahl
